References

Please use the "Harvard System" for referencing. This is sometimes referred to as the 'Name and Year' system: if you are unsure, you can read an entry describing this on Wikipedia at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Harvard_referencing, where there are also links to other sites with examples of this style, or consult any publishing reference guide.

Photographs or Tables

Photographs
Each Photo should be centered on the page and placed as close as possible to the text to which it relates. Photographs should be numbered consecutively in the order in which reference is made to them. The word " Photo " followed by the number of the figure should be followed by a brief caption and centered below the figure. For example:

Tables
Each Table should be centered on the page and placed as close as possible to the text to which it relates. Tables should be numbered consecutively in the order in which reference is made to them. The word "Table" followed by the number of the table should be followed by a brief caption and centered above the table. For example:

Table 1. This is an example of a table

	Column 1 Heading	Column 2 Heading	Column 3 Heading
Row 1 Heading
Row 2 Heading

Legal bit

In submitting a Paper (please use TEMPLATE legal-bit.doc), the author(s) warrant that the Paper submitted:
- is the original work of the author(s); and
- has never been copyrighted and/or published in its submitted form.
