Conference Venue

Gallery O3ONE, Andrićev venac 12, Belgrade as a part of Science3one Program.

Science3one consists of many scientific projects based on conference and festival type that emphasize interdisciplinary approach within them.

O3ONE within its programme encompasses TEDx Belgrade conference which tend to provide a chance to communities, organization and individuals to present their opinions and ideas through dialogue. Tendency to point out the growing presence of artistic practice in many fields, is mainly reflected in science platform development which O3ONE project puts a great stress on.
